CALLING FOR INDIGENOUS ARTISTS AND CREATORS

In 2021 and 2022, the Chinese Cultural Centre of Greater Toronto and the Indigenous Spirit Fund have collaborated to bring the 1000 Lanterns Cultural Sharing to life, aiming to promote understanding, peace, friendship, and awareness. The goal of the 1000 Lanterns Cultural Sharing is to bring forth Indigenous culture through local artists and youths.

ANNIVERSARY

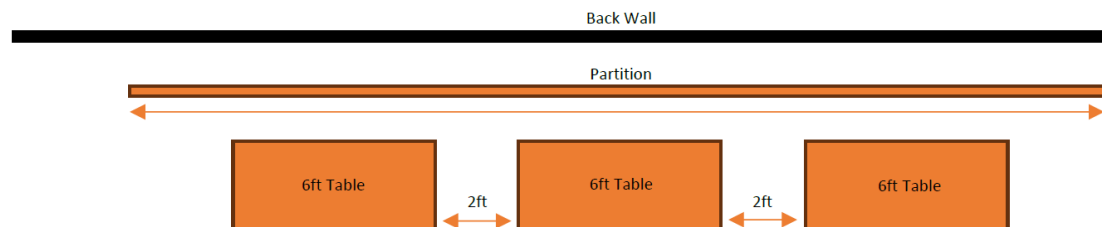

1000 Lanterns Cultural Sharing (ARTIST DATES AND DEADLINES)

November 8th, 2024 / Chinese Cultural Centre of Greater Toronto

Dear Artists, the excitement builds as we move closer to the 1000 Lanterns Cultural Sharing. We have some small requests of you as we co-ordinate the event details. Please make note of the dates and deadlines below.

INSTALLATION SPACE SIZE: Art pieces will be displayed in the Multi-Purpose Hall of the CCCGT. Artists will be provided with a 6ft table, chairs, and upright partitions to display their artwork. Artists are required to bring their own easels or stands if needed. The space in between each artist booth will be 2ft apart.

SET UP DATES: Tuesday November 5th to Thursday November 7th – 9:00 to 5:00 pm

Please bring your artwork to Rm. 212 (Events room) at the CCCGT ready for install or hanging.

TAKEDOWN AND PICKUP DAY: Latest Saturday November 9th - 10:00 to 5:00 pm.

Please bring any wrapping needed for packing.

INQUIRIES: If you're interested in participating in this event, please direct your confirmation and any questions to jessica.yang@cccgt.org.

Thank you for your participation, we look forward to seeing you soon!
